JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

ELOQUENT SPEECH FROM WADE HAMPTON.

The ceremonies of unveiling the statue recently erected by the surviving members of the Washington Light Infantry, of Charleston, to their dead comrades who fell in the late civil war, took place Thursday, in the presence of an immense crowd. Gen. Hampton was the orator of the occasion, and made a grand speech. How he answers the miserable creatures who in these latter days are whining that the sword can settle principles, and that a defeat for the cause of the Confederacy was a wicked cause, and those who fought for it traitors, is set forth in the appended burning words:

"Let us, then, my friends and comrades, cling with unrelaxing grasp and unshaken confidence to the faith that is in us. Let not the angry threats of oppression or the syren voice of temptation drive or allure us to forsake it. Above all, be not misled by that unmeaning jargon which tells you that your cause was submitted to the arbitrament of arms, and that the sword has decided that cause against you. The sword has never, nor will it ever, decide a principle or establish a truth. It can, as it has often done, overthrow a just cause, and make might take the place of right; but it can never revise the immutable laws of God make what is evil appear right in His sight. A noble cause, upheld heroically by honor, courage and patriotism, may die along with its supporters. A great truth never dies; but, eternal as the God-head from which it springs, it lives forever, amid all the changes of dynasties, the wreck of empires, and the death of nations. It is, too, as false in fact as in logic to assert that the sword can or does decide justly be tween right and wrong. With the sword the Goths and Vandals drenched the fair fields of Italy with the best blood of her sons. It gave nearly half the world to Mahomet. It allowed the Turks to trample out the civilization of Greece. Its keen edge has dismembered Poland. It has left Hungary bleeding at the feet of the oppressor. It has turned over Spain and Portugal to the tender mercies of the Saracen, and on this continent and in our day, directed by unscrupulous power against the throats of prostrate States, reeking with parricidal blood, it enforces the laws which it alone has made. Tell me not, then, that the sword can rightfully turn the scales of justice. It is the exponent of tyranny, not the arbitrator of truth—the badge of the tyrant and the executioner, not the symbol of justice. It is not at all inconsistent with these views that we, as a conquered people, should observe scrupulously the terms dictated by the sword and accepted by us. We can do this and should do it, in perfect good faith; but we should claim and exercise the God given right of free dom of opinion. We acknowledge that the cause for which these men died is lost, but we should be false to that cause were we to admit that they were, because of failure, necessarily wrong. We believe that they were right, and we therefore honor and respect their memory. If they were right, time will vindicate the action and record their fame. If wrong.

"It was a grievous fault,
And grievously have they answered it."

A YOUNG MAN SHARES HIS FORTUNE WITH A DISINHERITED BROTHER.

Ten—yes, fifteen—years ago, says the Kansas City Times, there lived in St. Joseph a family by the name of Adams, the head of which was a stern though kind old gentleman, whom fifty winters had touched lightly. He was wealthy, but what he prized far above all was the pride of his old age—two noble boys, George and Frank, aged respectively eighteen and twenty. The war came on—the terrible strife in which brother was arrayed against brother and father against son. Mr. Adams was an uncompromising Union man, and his eldest son, George, espoused his father's cause. Frank joined the forces in defense of the Sunny South under William Y. Slack. When his father learned of the course taken by the younger his rage knew no bounds. He sent him word to return, or he was no longer heir to his broad acres or a recipient of his love. His son replied that no inducement would cause him to surrender his principles. The old gentleman drew up his will, leaving his youngest son penniless. The war continued, each of the brothers fighting valiantly in defense of their different banners. Peace once more blessed the land, and the eldest son returned home, while the younger located in this city, and by his courteous bearing and close attention to business gained hosts of friends. His whereabouts was unknown to either father or brother, and though he loved them both his pride would not permit him to return to a home from which he had been cut off in a moment of passion. The old gentleman was gathered to his fathers, and his eldest son became sole heir to his wealth. George was no sooner in possession of his property than he made diligent search for his brother, and after a time traced him to this city. The meeting between the brothers occurred only last week, and was both cordial and affecting. The eldest caused a deed of half his estate to be made out in favor of his younger brother, and forced the acceptance upon him. Such a spirit is noble, grand and magnanimous; therefore we give St. Joe the credit as stated above. The incident is true, as persons in both cities can testify.

Ohio comes up and puts in its claim for the champion of remarkable memory. It claims that a man in Salem, in that State, can tell from memory the weather of any and every day since 1827 that he distinctly remembers whether any day was clear or cloudy, warm or cold, rainy or snowy.

An ingenious citizen of Connecticut has invented a machine for indicating the condition of an egg. By an ingenious but simple contrivance it can be made to boil an egg soft or hard, rings a bell when they are done takes them from the water and is only second to a cuckoo clock.

There are thirty-two dailies in New York City—six in German, two in French, one in Scandinavian, and the rest in English. These dailies print 220,000,000 sheets annually, and their receipts are about $8,700,000.

Discoveries of bones at Sioux city, Iowa, indicate that the aboriginal residents in that locality were all eight feet high.

SWEET QUININE

Is a Recent Improvement.

Replaces the use of the BITTER SULPHATE QUININE, with which all are familiar. Dose for dose, it is

WARRANTED

Fully equal in every way to Bitter Quinine,

AND, LIKE IT, Is THE ONE

Great, Positive, and Unfailing

CURE

For all Diseases of Malarious Origin.

Fever and Ague,
Intermittent Fever,
Chill Fever,
Remittent Fever,
Bilious Fever,
Dumb Ague,

and the long train of disorders following those when neglected.

SWEET QUININE

is made solely from Peruvian Bark (as is Bitter Quinine), therefore is of Vegetable origin, and not a Mineral poison, but on the contrary is proved to be one of the elements found in the blood of all healthy persons.

SWEET QUININE

acts as an antidote to, as well as a cure for, malarial or miasmatic poison, the absorption of which by the lungs causes Intermittent Fevers, etc. The onl advantage claimed for over the use of old Bitter Quinine is the entire absence of that intense, persistent bitterness, which in the latter is an insurmountable obstacle to its use with most persons, and always with children.

SWEET QUININE

is in two forms—in POWDER, for the use of Physicians and Druggists, and FLUID, for use in the family and for the general public.

THE THIRD DEGREE.

Yesterday we published, for the benefit of the old Whigs of the West, who belong to the leagues, the oaths taken in the first and second degrees of the league membership. The Governor swore to the negroes, "shoot me through the heart" if I fail "at all times, and under all circumstances, in summer's heat and winter's cold, in sunshine or in shade, night and day, to exert myself to the extent of my ability, for the relief of my suffering brethren." This would include assistance to escape from jail or the penitentiary, if a "brother" should unfortunately get into such places; and the "extent" of a Governor's "ability" in that direction is well known. (Wonder if John Ledbetter, Brattle, and the hundred and twenty-five pardoned convicts, are indebted to this clause in the oath for their present privilege of breathing the pure air of heaven?)

But to the oath of the third degree—here it is:

"I, ——, of my own free will and accord, in the presence of the Supreme Ruler of the Universe, and these Knights, do hereby and hereon most solemnly and sincerely swear, that I am not a member of any secret military organization. I furthermore promise and swear, that I will forever conceal and never reveal, any of the secret arts, parts, or points of the mysterics appertaining to this Degree of Knights, unless it be to a true and lawful brother Knight, or within the body of a just and lawful council of such; and not unto him or them, until, by true trial, strict examination, or lawful information, I find him or them lawfully entitled to receive the same. I furthermore promise and swear, that I will not be present at the conferring of this degree of Knighthood upon any person, unless he shall have previously received the degrees of Hero and United Hero of America. I furthermore promise, that I will support and maintain the by laws of any council of which I may hereafter become a member, the laws and regulations of the Grand Council under which the same may be holden, together with the constitution and ordinances of the Grand Council of the United States of America, so far as the same shall come to my knowledge.

I furthermore promise and swear, that at all times, and under all circumstances, in summer's heat or winter's cold, in sunshine or in shade, night and day, I will exert myself to the extent of my ability, for the relief of my suffering brethren; and will not cease those efforts, until the present rebellion has been put down, and the Union restored: To all of which I do most solemnly swear, binding myself under no less penalty, than of having my house burned down, and myself thrown into the flames thereof; and when the last trump shall blow, that I be henry excluded from the society of all true Knights, should I ever willfully or knowingly violate any part of this or preceding degrees. So help me God, and make me steadfast, to keep and perform the same. Kiss the Bible, and rise."

Brick Pomery is the proper man to comment on the oath of the second degree, and his is the only paper in the United States which could do the subject justice. Brick is competent to the task, because, as he says his "is not a ladies' paper," he don't publish a paper for ladies to read, and therefore, is such cases as the one alluded to, he can call things by their right names.

But ladies read our paper, and therefore we feel a delicacy in commenting on the obscene oath taken by twelve hundred old Whigs and eighty thousand negroes of the State, at their midnight meeting, as they shake hands and swear "not to carnally know each others' wives and daughters."

The negroes have become disgusted and are leaving the Leagues, and we advise the old Whigs to do the same.

But if you will not leave, don't for Heaven's sake, give, as a reason for remaining, that you are not willing to be led by secession Democrats, while the leaders of your Republican Leagues, consists of five signers of the ordinance of secession, namely, Gov. Holden, Judge Dick, Judge Thomas, Solicitor Starbuck and Maj. Wm. A. Smith; aided by Judge Gressy Sam Watts, Judge Rodman, who shot some of your boys for desertion, Col. Tax. Hargrove, who wanted to "walk over fire coals," in 1860, to "take Washington City," Col. W. J. Clarke, Col. Mark Erwin, Capt. Judge Settle, secesh cockade Judge Cantwell, old man Clingman, (who eat fire enough in 1860 to barbecue a yankee) and last and least, Judge Green.

The Republicans pretend that they have dispensed with these oaths, now that they have been found out, but we have no reason to believe them, but on the contrary, we have some strong reason for saying they have not abandoned them, by a letter that has recently fallen into our hands, written to the present leading Leagner in this State, and which we may publish before long.

At all events, we insist that the oaths should be administered to the neophites, Clingman and Green, if it has not already been done, so that they may not have any advantage of those who are already bound up by them.

ONLY THAT, AND NOTHING MORE.

The man who asserts that there is a feeling in North Carolina to resist the execution of the laws, while in force, or to change them in any other than a legitimate constitutional manner, more than the ordinary individual cases that occur in all States and at all times; or who asserts that there is any organization to overset or revolutionize the General or State government, as declared in some of the Radical newspapers, believing what he asserts to be true, is simply a fool, only that and nothing more.

He who makes these assertions with the ordinary opportunities of knowing their falsity, and without believing them true, but persists in them to gain some private or political end, is something worse than a mere fool; he is a slanderer and a knave.

He who believes such assertions as we have alluded to above is either to be pitied or despised, according as his belief is produced by natural or wilful ignorance.

For the Sentinel.

Good morning, Mr. Editor: May the purifying breezes of the "Sparkling Catawba" waft good health to you, while engaged in the commendable work of exposing the unrivalled corruption of that "great moral idea party" which has almost prostrated the energies of the good people of "the old North State."

"With me retire, and leave the pomp of Courts
For handsome cottages and rural sports."

With the exception of a delaying night's rest at Salisbury, the flight of a few hours passes the seeker of health, gayety and pleasure over the N. U. and Western N. C. Railroads to Hickory Station, where, after feasting himself with a good dinner, he takes the back and in an hour and a half, is safely seated at the lovely spot, known as "Sparkling Catawba Springs," in Catawba county, one of the most beautiful and most favored watering resorts in the South.

A few hours stay at the "sparkling Catawba" happily verifies the experience of the poet, that "There is sweetness in the mountain air."

The warm welcome and kindly attention of J. Golden Wyatt to the wants of the visitor soon convince him that he has fallen into golden hands. The genial smile and pleasant manner of J. N. Woodard of Staunton, Virginia, proposesses one to the extent that he will, in no wise, lack for full superintendence in all things.

"Guests have,
Requiring each to gratify his taste,
With different food."

So imagines the celebrated Mrs. Mary A. Wrenn, and with her imaginations equal to the reality of the occasion, spares no pains in making the variety equal to the manner of serving up the "different food." The blue and white sulphur and chalybeate waters, vieing with every one and every thing else to gratify, in no respect, behind them in giving the visitor an appetite almost proportionate to the quality and quantity of the attractive dishes that burden the table. Ten pin alleys, billiard tables, and a variety of amusements are at one's hands. The season has just fairly begun. Maryland, Virginia, North Carolina, Georgia and Alabama have their representatives.

On Saturday the band will arrive and, then, the votaries of Terpsichore, will draw heavily upon the old people to pay expenses for pumps, gaiters, chignons, &c., simply to please the gay and festive ones in carrying out "the music, the dancing, all was divine," provided, in the peaceful and beautiful retreat, the scene of the old song, "Kirk would not let us alone," should not be re-enacted.

The frequent topic of the hour, both on the way and here, has been politics, and inseparably connected with it, the question, "What do you think of Joe Turner and the SENTINEL?" One says it is "rich," another a "damascus blade," a third "spicy," a fourth "a necessary expose of sad times and wicked men," and the last, but by no means less, with as much brevity, as truth, caps the climax by the happy and expressive comparison in the quotation "the faithful Sentinel on the watch-tower!" To it the people of North Carolina say "Amen," and may its shadow never grow less. More anon. M.

A Chinese prince recently died in California from want and neglect. His name was Ging Po Lue Horg, and he was once Grand Admiral in the Chinese navy. A difficulty with his cousin, the Emperor, forced him to fly the country, and he came to San Francisco and entered into the business of importing Chinese labor. He was at one time possessed of immense wealth, and had one thousand dollars on his person at the time of his death. He is universally lamented by his brother Johns, who state that he was a scholar of much repute in his own country and the author of "How to Exterminate Barbarians and Missionaries," e.c.

North Carolina State Politics.

DIALOGUE I.

Enter a Democrat, a Conservative, a Conservative Republican and a Radical, all four personal friends.

Democrat.—Good morning neighbors!—You seem to be in private conversation. I hope I don't intrude.

Conservative Republican.—Certainly not. We have been discussing, in a friendly way, State politics—the present status of our people and their prospects under Gov. Holden's administration—a fruitful subject, one of the highest importance, but one which ought to be discussed calmly and without passion.

Conservative.—Yes, neighbor Democrat, I had just told our neighbors, that if we are honest in our views, there should be no ill feeling or crimination on the part of either, but an honest desire to arrive at truth, that we may act understandingly in the approaching election.

Rad cal.—I am pleased to converse with my neighbors, especially when they manifest that kind spirit, evinced this morning by those who differ with me. But I confess I am not a little surprised at the change in the temper of my former friends, Democrat and Conservative, towards me this morning. For some time I have thought you were disposed to snub me because of my political associations.

Conservative.—Neighbor Radical, when you used to be a secession Democrat, I was as hostile to your politics then as I am to your Radicalism, but I observed you then acted towards your neighbors, as if you felt you were above suspicion. Your associations then were genteel and respectable, and you challenged my consideration because you seemed to be above sinister motives and bore yourself as an honest, independent man. Since you became a Radical and formed other associations, you have always looked askant at me, as if you did not expect recognition from me and seemed really to doubt whether I would speak to you. Hoping that you were still honest, although I deeply regretted your affiliation with North Carolina Radicalism, it was my purpose to treat you with kindness and forbearance, and always spoke in passing. But neighbor Radical, you and neighbor Conservative Republican, since your identification with the Radical party, have both really looked as if you felt mean, when I met you, and yet I am sure I gave you no cause to suspect that I felt unkindly towards you.

Conservative Republican.—Neighbor Conservative, your remark is offensive. You said that since neighbor Radical and myself have been acting with the Radicals, we have looked when we met you, as if we felt mean. Do you mean to insult us?

Conservative.—Certainly not, neighbor.—I did not say that you looked meanly in my eyes, when you passed me, but that your manner made you look as if you felt mean. It might have been the fault of my eye or of my imagination. As we had entered into a frank but friendly conversation, I thought it could not be offensive to you to express my honest convictions.

Conservative Republican.—I pardon you then neighbor, but I am a little sensitive on this subject, and am glad to have a chance to explain my position, as I am sure I am not generally understood. You know from my youth, I was a Henry Clay Whig. I was honest then and have been since, throughout. I honestly opposed the Democratic party on principle—believed that that party was corrupt and would ruin the government, but became exceedingly hostile to it when it became clamorous for secession and precipitated disunion, upon the plea that Mr. Lincoln's election justified secession. I had been a life-long Union man; believed that any attempt at disunion would terminate ruinously to the South, as the result has demonstrated. I am still a Union man, satisfied that our only hope for peace and safety is in the preservation of the Union. I have, therefore, affiliated with the Republican or so-called Radical party, as more nearly representing my views, but I am no Radical—do not subscribe to the ultra views of that party, much less am I a Holden Radical; nor do I endorse the corruption and blunders of his administration.

Democrat.—I am glad to hear you speak out so plainly, neighbor Conservative Republican. I admit that you were an honest Whig, but will you not admit that Democrats were as honest as yourself? The government was administered for forty or fifty years upon Democratic principles, and you must admit that during that period, the prosperity and success of the government and our people, was beyond a parallel in the history of nations. The Democrats had been thoroughly indoctrinated into those principles and we still believe, that if those principles had controlled the government no disaster would have befallen the nation. We believed that the doctrine of State sovereignty and the consequent right of secession for cause, was a logical sequence of the fundamental principles of the government, but we all believed that the exercise of the right of secession practically, was an extreme measure, only to be exercised in an emergency. We believed, or many of us did, and among them our neighbor Radical, that the emergency had arisen, but that its exercise was no just cause of war—that the war was forced upon us by Mr. Lincoln and his policy, and when it came, we did not hesitate to fight for our principles and on the side of the South and our kindred. The result however disastrous, although it proved we were too weak to sustain our principles, by no means proved that those principles were unsound or that the government had been conducted successfully for fifty years on a mistaken and ruinous policy.

Radical.—Neighbor Democrat you seem disposed to twit me about my former Democracy and my having been a secessionist. You certainly do not blame an honest man when he finds he is in error, to change his course? It is true I was a Democrat and a secessionist from my youth. Gov. Holden, Gen. Clingman, Gen. Mark Erwin, Judge Cantwell and such great lights taught it to us, but like them I have seen the blunder. Hence I am for a radical change in every thing. Besides, we saw after the war, that if we continued to oppose the omnipotent party who whipped the South into submission, the whole State would be put under the control of the ignorant negroes and those thieving bummers and corrupt yankee carpet baggers, and to save the State from certain ruin, it was best for those of us who loved the old State, to join the great party of the Union and prevent the ruin which must follow.—Moreover, you must admit it was better for the State that the civil and military offices of the State should be filled by white North Carolinians, and as the negroes and carpet baggers were bent upon the remnant of the spoils that was left, that some of our own people should have a chance at them.

Conservative.—Neighbor Radical, you are very frank, and I should be glad to hear you all express your feelings as to yourselves personally, but we are on the eve of an important election, and it is more necessary for us to discuss the future than the past or the present, and the relative claims of the two parties which divide the State. We should honestly canvass the claims of the present State administration and its policy and whether or not the interests of the State demand its continuance in power. I propose that we fix upon an early day to discuss these matters as neighbors and friends.

Agreed, said all hands, and each returned to his home.

CLIO.

For the Sentinel.

PITTSBORO', July 2d, 1870.

Editor of the Sentinel:—Supposing you would be pleased to hear from the Convention, held by the Radicals, at this place to-day, 2nd of July, I take occasion to give you an account of their proceedings.—About 10 o'clock a carriage was driven into our Borough containing the illustrious free negro, Jim Harris, candidate for Congress, accompanied by a ginger cake colored citizen and Mr. Richardson, Gov. Holden's Private Secretary. These persons, after much consultation with old Silas Burns, John McDonald and others, (chicken Gunter not being present,) resolved that the first thing in order was a speech from Jim Harris, whereupon the whole crowd repaired to the African Church, and for two hours Jim held forth in strains of eloquence which delighted the negroes, not one of whom understood the first word of Jim's discourse. The next step was to form an organization, and the whole company returned to the Court House. After much delay, and many whisperings among this motley mass, among whom were "Parthians and Medes, and Elamites, and the dwellers in Mesopotamia," William Thomas, a man who spells which with a T in it, was called to the chair and old Silas Burns' son, Dave, I believe they call him, was appointed Secretary. The delegates from the twelve townships being called for it appeared that but four townships were represented, whereupon Dick Ramsey, colored, said that all the members of the Convention ought to have the right to vote for the candidates to be selected, but the white Radicals, thirteen in number, (for I counted them,) objected to this, and insisted that if every nigger in the meeting voted the white people would have no chance, as there were sixty niggers and only thirteen whites in the Convention. Just at this particular juncture of affairs, one Parish, from Orange county, Assessor for this District, rose and ventilated himself in a speech, which, for elegance of expression, vivacity and thundergustical pronunciation, threw Jim Harris completely in the shade, and would have shamed Blair out of all his rhetoric; as, for instance, in an attempt to compare the Conservative party with the Radical party, Mr. Parish said that "the Conservative party was obsexious to the charge of being synonymus with all the obstetrical information which was to be derived from a complex convulsion of attitudinal affairs.—Whereas the Republican party stood upon an apex of fictitious history blended with the innumbered catastrophes of a hundred well fought battles in which the great fight at Pharsalia between Pompey on one side and a colored man on the other was as nothing in comparison with the trials and battles fought by the Republicans in the last five years of the world's history. Sir, said Mr. Parish, you had as well try to hang out the ocean with a grape vine to dry as to destroy the Republican party, for it is based on hyperbolical principles enumerated in the phantasmagorical ellipses of an Ecumenical Council which has been delivered by the Pope of Rome, to be infallible."

Just here Mr. Burgess rose and called Mr. Parish to order, said Mr. P. was not talking to the point, they had all come there to nominate candidates for the Legislature, and he thought that Mr. Parish was using language to be comprehended not even by the few white men in the meeting much less by the colored people, and the Chairman decided Parish out of order. Then it was proposed by Daniel Bryan, colored, Elias Burns' old carpenter, that six white men and six black men should go out and nominate the candidates, whereupon this motion was carried and the Chairman was about to appoint the committee when Jemmy Long, the preacher and member of the last Legislature, the same man who blew the fife at New Hope to beat up recruits for the army in 1863, and the same man who said that hell was so full of yankees that their legs and arms were sticking out, said it was not Republicanism to allow twelve men to decide who should be their candidates, and insisted upon thirty-six persons as a committee to make the selection. This proposition met with hearty response and the Chairman appointed the thirteen white Radicals in the meeting, exclusive of himself, and the balance niggers, who, after three hours consultation and much wrangling brought in the names of Silas Burns for the Senate, and John McDonald and Billy Thomas for the House of Commons. It is understood here that the negroes clamored for two of the candidates to be colored men, but the few whites present deceived and overruled them for the fourth time in this county, and they have gone home very much dissatisfied.

Not a man spoke in this meeting (I mean the whites) who did not leave the impression that he was talking for a plan of some profit, that he was hiring himself out to pander to the prejudices of the colored race with the sole view of advancing himself, and many Radicals from the country who came to the meeting refused to recognize Jim Harris as their candidate and swore they were done with the concern, hence the small number of whites in the meeting. I must do Mr. Richardson the credit to say that he was the only white man who made a respectable speech and he was evidently embarrassed. We can beat that ticket.

NOTE.—We leave no undoubted authority that Mr. Burns has declared openly against Harris for Congress.—ED.

CASH ASSETS - - - - - - - $500,000.

YOUNG, HEALTHY, VIGOROUS AND CONDUCTED BY A WISE, PRUDENT, AND ECONOMICAL BOARD OF DIRECTORS UPON A NEW SYSTEM,

devised by its talented and distinguished Actuary CHAS. N. MORGAN, which must make it the leading Company in America, for persons in MODERATE CIRCUMSTANCES,
and all who appreciate and demand the most UNQUESTIONABLE SECURITY, at rates in most cases, some decidedly lower than those of the leading Mutual Cash Companies.

The Excelsior issues Policies on all the plans of Mutual or Stock Companies, extending to policy holders all the in really desirable advantages. Its policies being non-forfeiting, the insured are privileged to live and travel where they please in any healthy part of the world, they participate in its profits, are allowed 30 days grace for payment of renewal of premium, a cash surrender value of policy, and a privilege which has never been offered by any other Company, that of converting Policies into after the payment of 5 or more annual premiums.

Hitherto, I have been restricted in the very popular Company which I had the honor to represent to Stock rates alone, which most of the Mutual, and mixed Companies have adopted. This disadvantage, together with the multiplication of many new Companies in this State who claimed to possess unusual charms, together with the extraordinary attractions presented by the Excelsior induced me to accept the management of that Company, whose plan combines all the popular features of other Companies, represented in this State, without an exception, and the additional privilege of converting policies, which the holder can not afford to keep up, or wishes to discontinue because of the death of those for whose benefit the policy was secured, only an Annuity Bond which provides an income to each through life, or for a series of years as preferred.

Circulars giving full explanations and any other information, will be cheerfully furnished.

The most liberal arrangements, will be made with first class solicitors, to push the EXCELSIOR forward in the Old North State, to that position which her low rates and most ample security entitle her to occupy.

AUCTION TO NIGHT.—There will be a continuation of the Auction at the Yarborough House to night, of furniture of various kinds, to commence 8½ o'clock.

HOOK AND LADDER.—The members of Hook and Ladder Company, No. 1, are requested to meet promptly at Fireman's Hall, Tuesday, (to morrow,) at 4½ o'clock, P. M, in full uniform for parade.

Opinions of the Supreme Court crowded out to day—will appear to morrow.

DAVIDSON COLLEGE COMMENCEMENT.—We have received a full account of Davidson College commencement exercises, which we will publish as soon as we can possibly make room for it.

CITY MATTERS.—The Board of Commissioners, for the city held a special meeting on Friday evening last. We have again looked through the proceedings carefully to see if the Clerk of the Market had tendered an acceptable bond for the faithful performance of his duties, but could find nothing of the kind.

Rules were adopted for the renting of the Metropolitan Hall, one of the regulations being that "no lady shall be admitted unless accompanied by a gentleman, unless she be well known as respectable!" This regulation suggests to our mind several inquiries. 1st, are there any ladies who are not respectable? 2nd. Can a lady who is not respectable be admitted if accompanied by a gentleman? 3rd, In this case what will constitute the status of a gentleman? 4th, It might also be well to have understood what will constitute the respectability of a lady?

We suggest that the committee be required to make a supplemental report, including rules by which to decide these intricate questions, because it is well known that they are "mightily mixed" now-a-days.

We notice further that a resolution was adopted in regard to excessive assessment, that "holds the word of promise to the ear and breaks to the hope," in other words it establishes a new form of assessment unknown to the law, and requires an oath they have no legal or moral right to exact. The fact is this whole matter of assessment is oppressive, and the pretended method of redress is such as to effectually cut off redress altogether. The result will probably be that the collection of the taxes will be resisted by law, as it is very clear the assessments are unjust and illegal, and the redress offered is equally unjust and impracticable.

We have some other things to say about these matters and others relating to city affairs, but postpone them for the present.

VALUABLE HOUSEHOLD ARTICLE.—Mr. T. W. Fuller, the inventor, is in the city for the purpose of selling his "Italian Cement," for mending broken china, glass or crockery ware. The process of using it is simple and easily understood and performed by anybody, and the mended ware is as useful as before being broken. The cement has been tested here and stands hot water without losing its tenacity.

Mr. Fuller is a Floridian and apparently a young man worthy of encouragement.—He will remain in the city for several days and will call on families for the purpose of selling his cement.

GOING IT STRONG.—A correspondent from "up the Road," informs us that Billy Smith, who is President of the N. C. Railroad and candidate for the Senate from Alamance and Guilford, has given not less than eight hundred free passes to persons in these two counties, within the last ten days, on his road, which is a loss to the Stockholders of one thousand dollars.

Billy seems determined to make one office help to get him another. We understand his programme is "not to interfere with, or attempt to influence, the intelligent men of his district, but that he'll be d—d if the poor whites and kidney footed negroes shan't vote as says, where he has the power to control them." Blow your horn, Billy!

BROKE GROUND.—The workmen broke ground this morning, to lay the foundation of the new engine house for the Steam Fire Engine Company, and the wagons are engaged in hauling in the brick.

Messrs. King and Whitelaw are the contractors for the brick work, and Messrs. Betts, Vaughn and Allen for the wood work. Below we give the programme for laying the corner stone, which comes off to morrow afternoon at 5½ o'clock:

PROGRAMME.

The Rescue Steam Fire Engine Company will assemble at the Engine House at 4 o'clock.

At five o'clock precisely, will march to the head of Fayetteville street, at the south gate of the Capitol Square, and there meet the Hook and Ladder Company.

Form procession, and march down Fayetteville street to the Governor's Mansion, and then return up Fayetteville street to the site of the new Engine House, which they will reach about 5½ o'clock, when the corner stone will be laid by the builders, the two companies forming a square around the stone.

After the stone is laid, the companies will proceed to the front of the Court House, at which place Hon. K. P. Battle will deliver an address. After which, if time will permit, the companies will parade up Fayetteville and Hillsboro streets, and return around the North side of Capitol square and down Wilmington street, to their respective Engine Houses.

The public, and especially the ladies, are invited to attend at the Court House to hear the address. Seats will be provided for the occasion.

For the Sentinel.

At a Convention of delegates from Burke, Caldwell and Watauga, (41st Senatorial District,) held in the Court House of Caldwell, June 30th, 1870, Maj. G. W. Harper was called to the chair, and the object of the assembly explained to be the nomination of a Conservative candidate to represent this District in the next Senate.

Upon the organization of the Convention it was resolved, upon motion of Capt. Avery, that this Convention is opposed to the nomination of any one who is in the least banned by the Howard amendment.

On motion of Ed. Jones, Esq., it was resolved that each township be allowed one vote, a majority of the townships deciding the vote of each county, and a majority of the counties fixing the nomination.

While the delegates were absent, in deliberation, the audience were entertained by a stirring address by Mr. C. F. McKesson, a young gentleman of great worth and promise.

On return of the delegation they reported the votes of Burke and Watauga as unanimous for Dr. W. H. Councill, of Watauga, and Caldwell divided, with a majority for Mr. A. C. Farthing, of Watauga. Dr. Councill being declared the nominee of the Convention it was confirmed by unanimous acclamation.

It was resolved that copies of the proceedings be sent to the SENTINEL and Asheville Citizen for publication.

No further business appearing the Convention adjourned sine die.

G. W. B. HARPER, Ch'm.
W. W. GAITHER, Sec'y.

"HANDEL'S MESSIAH."—When Handel's "Messiah" was first performed, the audience were exceedingly struck and affected by the music in general, but when the chorus struck up "For the Lord God omnipotent reigneth," they were so transported that they all together with the king (who happened to be present), started up, and remained standing till the chorus ended; and hence it became the fashion in England for the audience to stand while that part of the music is performing.

The only prisoner in the Nantucket jail notifies the authorities that if they don't fix up that jail so that the sheep can't get in to bother him, he will be blowed if he will stay in there.

Build up the System.

Strength evaporates fast at this season. This is especially the case with all who live by the sweat of their brow. From every pore of the stove-like skin a moisture exudes which contains the elements of vitality. Thereby the blood is impoverished, the nerves relaxed, the muscles weakened, the digestion impaired, the bowels disturbed, and the animal spirits depressed. The constant drain that produces these effects cannot be arrested, because it is due to the heat of the atmosphere; but the loss of the life-sustaining elements can be supplied by extra invigoration. Now, therefore, is the time to resort to Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, the most powerful and healthful of all vegetable tonics. Long experience has proved that nothing else will efficiently sustain and regulate the system, when sitting down under the double pressure of excessive heat, and constant physical or mental labor. All persons who have been tempted to try the local "tonics" (so-called) which have been started by sordid speculators in almost every town and village, with a view of "turning a penny" by the credulity of the unwary, know this to their cost. It is a wise maxim that says "hold fast to that which is good." Of the forty millions of people in the United States, probably one-fifth have tested the restorative properties of Hostetter's Bitters and know it to be a specific for dyspepsia, biliousness, nervous weakness, general debility, constipation, fever and ague, and want of appetite; that any of these should be persuaded to experiment with the worthless nostrums, recommended by unscrupulous and ignorant empirics seems almost incredible.

TELEGRAPHIC.

Tuesday Night Dispatches.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, July 5.—HOUSE.—Palmer, from the special Committee, made a minority report accompanied by a bill to establish a Postal Telegraph system, and to incorporate the Postal Telegraph Company.

After a discussion of three hours the report of the Election Committee, declaring Adams, the sitting member from Kentucky, entitled to his seat was agreed to without a division, and a resolution passed giving his contestant $5 00 for his expenses.

After a two hour's discussion the Virginia case of Tucker vs Booker, reported in favor of Booker, was tabled by a vote of 99 to 34.

The senate was all the after con debating the amendment to the tax bill providing for bonded transportation of imported merchandize to interior cities. The amendment was finally rejected.

MISSOURI.

ST LOUIS July 5.—Captain Leathers of the steamer "Natchez," claims that deducting the six hours laid up by the fog, and the thirty-six minute a lost repairing the pump below Helena, that the "Natchez" beat the "Lee's" time some 20 minutes. A banquet to both Captains will be given at the Southern Hotel to night.

VIRGINIA

RICHMOND, July 5.—Judge Guigon to day decided in the contested city election, that the matter of illegal and fraudulent votes cannot be gone into. Had this matter been opened the legal proceedings would have extended beyond the term for which city officers are elected. The Republicans claim that his decision in effect gives city offices to their candidates. The Conservatives will contest the case on the ground of informality in the elections.

LEXINGTON, July 5.—The commencement exercises of the Virginia Military Institute were concluded this morning. Gov Walker delivered the address before the graduating class. He was enthusiastically applauded. James Barron Hope, Editor of the Norfolk Virginian, delivered the memorial poem. There were fifty-two graduates, the largest number ever known any previous year.

The Alumni dinner last evening, drew together a large number of distinguished gentlemen. Speeches were made by Governor Walker, ex-Gov. Letcher, Rev. Dr. Curry, Col. Massie, Col. Wm. Preston Johnson, Hon. Z. Turner, and others.

The commencement ball was a brilliant affair. There was a splendid display of fire works last night.

FOREIGN.

MADRID, July 5.—It is announced to-day, that the Prince of Hohenzollen, has accepted the offer of the Spanish throne. The Council will immediately take the matter under discussion. It is tolerably certain that this candidature will be proclaimed without the sanction of the Cortes.

LATER.—The Government authorities to-day officially deny having made any but confidential overtures to a foreign Prince; the name of the Prince, the Government adds, it is not yet proper to divulge.

LONDON, July 5.—Advices received to day from Aden, report that the ship "John Dryden," was recently found ashore and abandoned near that place. Her cargo of cotton was not injured.

The Times in a city article this morning, anticipates no difficulty attending the close of speculative accounts for the autumn recess.

The Duke of Sutherland yesterday gave a banquet in honor of Lesseps. Among the guests present were the Dukes of Cambridge and Argyll. Right Hons. Wm E Gladstone and Benj. D'Israeli, the Lord Dufferin and others.

Wednesday Evening Dispatches.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, July 6.—The House Committee on Pacific Railroads held a meeting last night for the consideration of the Texas Pacific railroad bill, which recently passed the senate, and agreed to report adversely upon the section establishing the gauge at five feet, and providing for various Branch Roads. They will also recommend that the Stockholders in requiring to pay up 10 per cent on $5 000 000, instead of on $10 0 000 as provided by one of the sections of the Senate bill.

SENATE.—Abbott from the Committee on Pacific Railroads, reported with amendments the bill incorporating the contemplated Trans-Continental Railway Company, under the name of the Western North Carolina Extension Railway Company. The bill authorizes the Western North Carolina Railroad, Wilmington, Charlotte and Rutherford Railroad, and the Spartanburg Union Railroad Companies to consolidate for the purpose of constructing and completing a continuous Railway communication via Asheville, N. C. and Dunktown, Tennessee, to Cleveland Tennessee or to Dalton Georgia, connecting the part of Newton, Wilmington and Charleston with San Diego, California, by the way of the contemplated Southern Trans-Continental Railway.

NEW YORK

NEW YORK, July 6.—DeLong, injured by the explosion of a cannon on the 4th inst., is dead.

FOREIGN.

PARIS, July 6.—The Constitutional, a semi-official organ says, that the Government would consider the Spanish enthronement of the Prince Hohenzollern as a menace to France.

Prim and the Prussian minister attended minister Olivier's banquet.

The departure of the Prussian ambassador caused much comment; many asserting that France has just cause for war if Hohenzollern's candidature is pressed.

Late yesterday an interview with the Emperor, by the minister of foreign affairs and the Spanish ambassador, resulted in an energetic note of protest to the Prussian ambassador, who departed immediately for Ems to meet the King of Prussia.

ST. JOHN'S FEMALE COLLEGE.
OXFORD, N. C.

THE FALL SESSION OF THIS INSTITUTION will open the 1st Wednesday in August. Board and the entire English course, per session of 20 weeks, only $80.

Other charges moderate.

Pupils, who take only the English course, will be charged for board and English Tuition $100.

Parents and guardians will find this the cheapest FIRST-CLASS school in the South.

The buildings and grounds are unsurpassed. There are 60 rooms in the main building, with a most commodious and elegant chapel.

Hacks always at Henderson, to take pupils to the College. No charge to pupil for hack hire.

The subscriber begs to return his thanks to the many friends of Kittrell's Springs Female College for the liberal patronage which gave to that Institution an unparalleled success. It is due to them that he should assign the following reasons for leaving that location.

1. His can CHEAPEN EDUCATION. The property at Kittrell's is too expensive to establish there a permanent school at low rates. The buildings are of wood, requiring constant repairs, liable to fire, and erected originally as a summer resort.

2. The desire expressed by so many to have Kittrell's Springs again opened as a watering place.

3. The kind and almost irresistible overture, made by the good citizens of Oxford, to come into their midst. Every appliance of the school at Kittrell's, including pianos, furniture, &c., has been moved by them free of all charge.

4. The wide-spread and justly deserved reputation of Oxford for health, refinement, and untiring zeal in behalf of education.

5. The unanimous action of the Board of Directors in placing the College in his charge for ten years.

6. The pupils in attendance at Kittrell's the past session, with scarcely an exception, have been entered for the next session at Oxford, many parents expressing a preference for that location. This fact is most gratifying, and he congratulates himself that his former patrons sustain him with so remarkable a unanimity. He expects, with the help of his former most efficient and accomplished Faculty (all of whom accompany him,) to build up in Oxford a permanent and first-class College for young ladies, one that shall be a joy to the State, and an ornament to the South.

PAIN KILLER
PERRY DAVIS'S
1840 1870

This Valuable Family Medicine has been widely and favorably known in our own and foreign countries upwards of

THIRTY YEARS!

It has lost none of its good name by repeated trials, but continues to occupy a prominent position in every family medicine chest.

It is an External and Internal Remedy. For Summer Complaint, or any other form of bowel disease in children or adults, it is an almost certain cure, and has without doubt, been more successful in curing the various kinds of cholera than any other known remedy, or the most skillful physician. In India, Africa and China, where this dreadful disease is more or less prevalent, the Pain Killer is considered by the natives, as well as European residents in those climates a sure remedy; and while it is a most efficient remedy for P. S. it is a perfectly safe medicine, even to unskillful hands. Directions accompany each bottle.

Sold by all Druggists.

Price 25 cts., 50 cts., and $1 per bottle.

GENERAL AGENTS,
CHARLOTTE N. C.

THE EQUITABLE
HAS BECOME THE LEADING COMPANY OF THE WORLD.

Its New Business (new assured), for the year 1869, exceeded that of the second company in rank by more than TWENTEEN MILLION DOLLARS.

In 1860 it was the 5th Company in new business for the year; in 1861 it was the 8th; in 1862 and 1863 the 7th; in 1864 and 1865 the 6th; in 1866, the 4th; in 1867, the 3d; in 1868, the 2nd;

In 1869 it was the FIRST.

The insuring public should not allow itself to be deceived with regard to the term "Annual Dividends." Many companies using this expression mean that their dividends are "ANNUAL" AFTER THEY ONCE BEGIN TO PAY THEM AT ALL; but they DO NOT BEGIN TO PAY until the settlement of the third, fourth, or fifth premium.

One hundred Dollars paid dividends at the end of one year, and each year thereafter, equals FOUR HUNDRED AND THIRTY SIX DOLLARS paid at the end of FOUR YEARS, interest at six per cent.

Applications for Assurance may be made to any of the Society Agents throughout the country, or in person or by letter to the General Agents.

Gentlemen of character desirous of forming a connection with the Society as Agents are invited to communicate with its General Agents.

A NEW DISCOVERY!!
PHALON'S
"VITALIA;"
OR,
Salvation for the Hair.

CLEAR AS WATER!
WITHOUT SEDIMENT!!
OPEN TO THE LIGHT!!!

For Restoring to Gray Hair its Original Color.

PHALON'S "VITALIA" differs utterly from all the hair coloring preparations heretofore used. It is limpid, sweet smelling, precipitates no muddy or slimy matter, requires no shaking, imparts no stain to the skin. Hold it to the light and it is clear and colorless. It leaves no mark on the scalp; yet it reproduces in gray hair the natural color that time or sickness may have bleached out of it.

☞ Phalon's Vitalia ☜

is for one sole purpose, that of reproducing, with absolute certainty, the natural color of the hair. It is not intended as a daily dressing, nor for removing scurf or dandruff; nor for curing baldness; nor for stimulating the growth of the hair.—These objects may be accomplished after the color has been fixed with the Vitalia, by Phalon's Chemical Hair Invigorator.

THE VITALIA is a harmless and unequaled preparation for the reproduction of the original hue of gray hair, and nothing else. This is accomplished in from two to ten applications, according to the depth of shade required. Sold by all druggists.

NON-EXPLOSIVE COMBINATION BURNING FLUID
THE CHEAPEST, BEST AND SAFEST ILLUMINATING AGENT IN THE WORLD!!
No more Exploded Cans!—No more Exploded Lamps!
No more Smoke!—No more Grease!
No more Fires!!
EVERYBODY PREFERS IT AFTER GIVING IT A TRIAL!
IT costs less!—It lasts longer!—Gives a more Brilliant Light!—May be burned in hand lamps, without chimney.
Guaranteed to make a better and safer Light than Coal Oil and to be NON EXPLOSIVE!!!
No accidents have ever happened with it.
Protected by Copy right for 28 years from May 8th 1868.
The above Fluid has been in constant use for upwards of three years, and has sustained its unrivalled reputation, as a brilliant, non-explosive illuminating agent, though subjected to the severest tests. Being universally conceded to be superior to Kerosene or Coal Oil. It makes a better light and more of it, than any other illuminating compound. Soft, clear, steady and uninjurious to the eyes. All that is asked is, a fair and impartial trial.
Among the numerous testimonials received read the following:
PHILADELPHIA, March 18th, 1869.
The undersigned, having witnessed the experiments of Messrs. Hale & Co., with their Combination Burning Fluid, take pleasure in commending it to the public. The various tests to which the Fluid was subjected, was in the highest degree satisfactory. We have no hesitation in pronouncing it to be a safe and beautiful illuminating agent. Its cheapness added to its other good qualities, should insure its introduction into every family in the country, where Kerosene Oil is used.

The laws of New York compel Companies in that State to calculate the Cash value of their Policies, each and every year, and a certain legal standard of reserve and accumulation must be held by the Companies to meet all their liabilities.
Insurers in looking around for Companies in which to insure, should carefully seek for this important safeguard. It will be found in the BROOKLYN LIFE.
